

A FULL FORECAST OF THE SEASON'S LINGERIE FROCKS

Moorish Arches the Architectural Trimming Motif Now.

SLASHED SKIRTS WORN.

Hats Intended for Brides Travelling in the South in February.

Elaboration is the keynote of the new lingerie frocks—so whisper the balm breezes that blow up from the Southland, where at Palm Beach, Aiken, Jacksonville and other exclusive colonies, society is already beginning to recuperate from the effects of an unusually gay winter season.

The lingerie costume that has more than a consecutive half yard of plain material in its design is now entirely out of the picture—no far as 1913 modes go. Yards and yards of trimmings—mostly fine machine embroideries—are arranged on the sheer ground material of the summer frock until an allover effect of elaboration is secured, and this use of handsome embroideries in combination with bands and motifs of lace gives an effect that is at once diaphanous and airy, and lavishly rich and expensive. All this is quite in keeping with the Oriental tendency in dress, particularly noticeable in the summer models now being worn at Palm Beach.

Two typical 1913 lingerie costumes are illustrated. One of these charming frocks is of Paris origin; the other was built in New York by a large manufacturer of women's dresses whose designers go to Paris for their inspiration. Both costumes are accompanied by summery hats of the latest fashion and by white footwear. With the Moorish arch dress are worn white buckskin buttoned boots—the accepted type of footwear with white costumes of a formal or semi-formal character.

MOORISH ARCH PATTERN THE CRAZE IN PARIS.

The French frock is by Christiane of Paris, and is made of very sheer, soft white batiste embroidery in one of the new swag patterns, and fine white net. This combination of machine embroidery and net is a striking style note of the new season, and these two materials used together produce an effect which is both delicate and rich. The Moorish arch pattern—just now the craze in Paris—is effected in this Christiane frock by the arrangement of the trimming and the shape of the net insert. Now that this idea of going to architecture for inspiration has occurred to the French couturiere there is no telling where the thing may end. No doubt Gothic points and buttresses, Turkish minarets, Ionian columns and what not else, will crop out on next season's sartorial creations and the dreamers may even go so far as to turn out Elizabethan, Georgian and Queen Anne styles of costume if the fact continues.

Other features of the new lingerie frock.

The buttoned vest is a modish feature of this lingerie frock, and so is the yoke, which reaches far over the shoulder to meet the top of a long, closely fitting sleeve. Another new note in the fashioning of sleeve and slashed flounce of arched striped drapes, while the yoke and tunic are of plain crepe. The slashing of the embroidery trimming at the edge of the tunic, to accord with the slashing of the skirt beneath, is an interesting suggestion; as is also the manner of applying the embroidered banding to the tunic with corded piping.

The two hats pictured show the latest ideas in ribbon trimmings. Both hats are intended for travelling wear in the South; and both are trousseau hats—to be worn by brides of the first week in February. One model is of mouse gray straw braid, faced with Pompadour red moire silk, and moire ribbon in the same shade is pleated to form the stiff brush which stands out over the right ear, and twisted to form the soft folds which encircle the crown and seem to hold it to the hat. This new hat will accompany a travelling suit of mouse gray moire and worsted mixture worn with a blouse of lace and chiffon with red, blue and gray embroideries on collar and cuffs. The other hat is a practical affair, of rough brown straw with a pleated gulf of moire ribbon in burnt onion color.

RUSSIA'S BOY CROWN PRINCE RECEIVES COSSACK TROOP.

Soldiers Congratulate Czar's Heir on His Recovery From Recent Illness.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 1.—Crown Prince Alexis Nikolaevich to-day received at the palace at Tsarskoe-Selo a detachment of Ural Cossacks, who presented the boy Prince with an address congratulating him on his recovery from his recent illness.

FIXED POST COPS "NEST" AMONG EGGS, IS CHARGE.

Three Said to Have Roosted in Store While One Covered Another's Station.

As the result of an investigation made by Capt. John Gray of the Leonard street station, Lieut. Dennis J. Lyons and Patrolman John J. Brown, Daniel M. Cusky and John F. Ward of that precinct were suspended from duty today. Charges of failing to enforce discipline will be preferred against Lyons and of being off post against the patrolmen. Patrolman Andrew Frohlin is charged with covering Brown's fixed post in Brown's absence, but has not been suspended.

Capt. Gray received information two days ago that when J. A. Rosenbaum opened his butter and egg store at No. 115 Washington street on the morning of Jan. 24 he found considerable of his stock on the floor and evidence that the place had been a camping ground during the night for several men. Charges established, according to his report, that Brown, Cusky and Ward were in the store at 4 o'clock in the morning, having obtained entrance by means of a key. Brown was absent from his fixed post, which was filled by the accommodating Frohlin.

Lieut. Lyons was in charge of the squad of which the accused patrolmen are members. He is accused of not exercising proper vigilance.

WON BET ON CHAPEL PRAYER

But Student From Brooklyn Had to Quit Wesleyan University.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Feb. 1.—Because he made a bet in chapel with a fellow student that Prof. William North Rice's prayer would last more than ten minutes and when the time limit was up audibly remarked that he "had won," Clarence B. Smith, a student from Brooklyn, was dismissed to-day from Wesleyan University.

Prof. Rice, one of the oldest members of the faculty, is noted among the students for the fervor and duration of his prayers in chapel.

TELEGRAMS FAIL TO AID SHOOTER OF POLICEMEN.

Reach Judge From Boston and Montpelier, but Salvano Goes to Sing Sing Just the Same.

County Judge Paddock of Franklin County, sitting in Brooklyn, received to-day his second telegram from friends of Alexander Salvano, whom he promptly sentenced to not more than four years and six months or less than one year and eight months at hard labor in Sing Sing.

Salvano was convicted on one of five indictments charging him with shooting two policemen and two passers by on a July evening when he was on a tour of the steamship Montpelier of the Venezuela and Porto Rico line lying at the foot of Hamilton avenue. The first telegram was sent to the Judge on Monday before the trial was opened and demanded freedom for Salvano. It was sent from Boston and signed "Defense Committee of Alexander Salvano." To-day's message was sent from Montpelier, Vermont, and read:

"To the Honorable Judge Conducting the Alexander Salvano Case, County Court House, Kings County: 'Alexander Salvano should be freed of the charge because he acted in proper defense. In the name of the Spanish colony.' It was signed Severo Acoba, Nemesis Cahanzo, Eliza Barquin, Luis Gomez, Pedro Ruiz and Romeo Maguel."

Salvano was seized by a boy as it was being blown off the pier into the water.

LIQUOR AND HEADGEAR LOST AS NEW YORK SAILS.

Bottle Smashes Against Steamer's Side and Wind Does Rest With Score of Hats.

The sailing of the steamship New York for Southampton to-day was accompanied by several amusing incidents. A belated passenger raced to the end of the pier just in time to gain the deck of the steamer in a flying leap. A sailor in his efforts to throw a bottle of beverage aboard the steamer as it was pulling out lost his footing. The bottle fell short of its mark and broke against the side of the steamer.

Those congregated on the pier were waving at those aboard the New York when a gust of wind removed a score of hats. A derby, borne by the wind, fell on the ferryboat Somerville of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, bound for Jersey City. Its owner was compelled to await the ferryboat's return to recover his headgear. A woman's hat was seized by a boy as it was being blown off the pier into the water.

O'RYAN CLEARED OF CHARGES MADE BY GEN. VERBECK

No Basis for Them and Probably Maliciously Made, Report of Sulzer Board.

ALBANY, Feb. 1.—"I think this is the last word in the Verbeck-O'Ryan controversy," said Gov. Sulzer to-day when he received the formal report of his committee of inquiry, in which the committee recommended "that the matter be dismissed as unworthy of further attention either at the hands of this committee or at the hands of Your Excellency."

After briefly reviewing former Adit-Gen. Verbeck's charges that Major-Gen. O'Ryan while in command of a New York City battery of the National Guard had misapplied certain civil funds of the organization, the committee finds as follows:

"We are satisfied that the accusations against Gen. O'Ryan are without the slightest support in fact, and we are compelled with regret to report that the charges in our opinion were made for some ulterior purpose and maliciously, without any desire to promote in any respect the welfare of the National Guard."

WIFE NO. 2 BEATS HIM UP.

Police Rescue Morse, Who Admits Bigamy on Charge of No. 1.

Pale and scared, Harry F. Morse of No. 115 Fourteenth avenue, Astoria, an inventor of automobile attachments, stood before Magistrate Appleton in Centre Street Court to-day and pleaded guilty to bigamy. He kept one eye on Louise Fricke Morse, who says he married her last Christmas Eve in Manhattan. When he had been arrested and taken to the Long Island City police station she was there. She flew at him and only the interference of the police kept her from seriously injuring him. She said that she was going to get a revolver and shoot him. The second complainant was Minnie Mehlenken Morse, who swore that Morse had married her June 25, 1902, at Bayonne, N. J. Magistrate Appleton held Morse in $2,000 for the Grand Jury.

"BORROWER OF TIME" HAPPY

He's a Cleveland Man and is 102—Celebrates His Birthday.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 1.—William Clark, "borrower of time," celebrated his birthday to-day. He is 102. During the day he wrote three letters, took a short walk and entertained a dozen guests. Clark lives at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Malcolm.

CAKE 14 FEET ROUND.

Hungry Club to Tackle It at Mattie Sheridan Birthday Dinner.

The biggest cake ever baked will be a feature of the 34th dinner of the Hungry Club at the Hotel Marquises to-night. Besides being the club's week-end dinner, it will be the celebration of the birthday of its president, Mattie Sheridan, known as "the Littlest President," although she presides over 70 members, including ex-Senator Chauncey M. Depew, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Maxim and others equally well known. To make this birthday cake it was necessary to have even a special piece of sheet iron manufactured, as the ordinary material of tinware is only thirty inches wide and the cake measures fifty-four inches in diameter with a circumference exceeding fourteen feet. It is decorated with 100 pink roses and from the heart of each there rises a pink cascade, and the cake measures fifty-four inches in diameter with a circumference exceeding fourteen feet. ### PEACE NOTE TO CZAR.

Austrian Proposition Expected to Clear Situation.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 1.—A letter from Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary to Emperor Nicholas of Russia which it is hoped will clear away the mutual Austro-Russian suspicion and the embitterment of the Austrian and Russian armies is reported to be on the way from Vienna in the hands of Prince Hohenlohe-Waldenburg-Schillingfuerst, formerly the Austro-Hungarian military attaché here.

Austria-Hungary continues the active enrolment of supplementary re-servants in the frontier districts bordering on Russia and Servia, according to despatch from Prague to the Novos Vremya. A force of 250,000 Austro-Hungarian troops is now concentrated in Bosnia.

BEAUTY IS THE OUTWARD DISPLAY OF GOOD HEALTH

Be well and you will be beautiful. If your digestion is good your complexion will be good.

The key to beauty is a perfect stomach. The food we eat is the fuel that keeps our body going. If this food is properly digested it makes healthy blood and steady nerves, which keep the complexion clear and the eye bright.

If the body is not properly nourished the cheeks become sallow, the eye dull, the figure drooping and listless. Cooper's New Discovery, which can be obtained at any drug store, is the best beauty tonic in the world because it insures a healthy stomach. By healing the stomach it brightens the sallow complexion. It lifts years off your shoulders. It brightens your eye, straightens your drooping figure, gives every movement of your body an expression of strength and decision.

It gives you a smile in place of your bulky kidneys—it brightens your temper if you have liver trouble—it clears away the frown from the forehead that was racked with acute headaches.

Macy's Greatest Mid-Winter Furniture Sale Occupying the entire 6th Floor

Begins on

MONDAY

In variety of assortments, size of floor space, and extent of price range, this will be the greatest Furniture Sale that Macy's has ever held.

As to Values, it is needless to say anything more than that the values will be as good as they have been in previous Macy Furniture Sales.

This means prices will average 1/4 to 1/3 lower than Macy's regular "Lowest-in-the-City" prices. If we took a whole page of newspaper space we could not say more.

There are three points regarding this Furniture Sale worthy of your attention.

① More than ever before, this year we have tried to have such a complete stock that we can fill every furniture need. The realization of this ideal has been made possible by the greatly increased space which is this year devoted to the Furniture Sale. If you want furniture for an apartment, a house or hotel, you can find not only exactly the piece you want, but the particular article in a variety of sizes to fit your exact space. Sixth Floor.

③ We cannot emphasize too often that values such as Macy's are offering in this sale are made possible neither by magic nor by secret merchandising methods. Equal values would be possible for any other large store (satisfied with modest profits) that would adopt the Macy policy of buying for cash only and selling for cash only, without discounts, commissions, club-payment plans, installment payment plans or any other device of this sort. Sixth Floor.

One price to all and that the "Lowest-in-the-City," has been, is, and will continue to be the Macy rule.

And remember this:

Your money back if you are not satisfied in every respect—applies to every piece of Furniture in this immense sale, as it always has applied to every bit of merchandise in Macy's Store.
